The People's Party has put out a statement in Iowa.

If anybody thinks there are any lies on Severs in this race let him dance up and show his hand.

The United States Supreme Court has adjourned after deciding 617 cases, the highest number on record at a single term.

Is a very large number of counties in the State, the Farmer's Alliance are putting out their candidates for the Legislature.

Grand Avenue Cave in Edmondson county, has been sold to a Nashville Storage Company, who it is said will use it as a storage room in which to put their goods.

A monument to the Confederate soldiers, of Mississippi, was unveiled at Jackson, Miss., last Thursday amidst the greatest enthusiasm, and in the presence of 20,000 people.

The members of the Democratic State Central Committee will meet at Louisville to-morrow to decide upon a plan of conducting the State campaign this summer.

The opponents of the new Constitution will meet to-day at Lexington, Ky., to hold a conference and decide upon the best method of bringing out the vote of the State to defeat the instrument.

The Legislative race is getting in a mighty tangle in Davies county. Some prominent men there wish to become candidates are holding off hoping to strike the popular wave later on.

The business end of the paper is about as fat with the newspaper fraternity. It has so happened that whenever there has been anything in the shape of a good time about for a number of the family it has always gotten down on Mr. John D.'s side of the ledger.

fruit to get until such time as they may wish to put it on the market. Why should this company have gone over to Edmondson on the hunt of such a thing when they could have found one in this county near Rosetta, superior to any in the world for storage purposes. The cave at Rosetta is a natural refrigerator furnishing its own supply of ice all the year round, winter and summer.

REPRESENTATIVE Will Miller says, the new Constitution is a good instrument. He was present and had even the best of it discussed in the Convention and thinks it could not be much improved upon. Mr. Miller has had several hundred copies of the constitution distributed among the citizens of the county. Let them read it and decide for themselves in August whether they will vote for it.

JUNIOR J. A. Murray will speak at Harbansburg next Monday on the political issues of the day. This announcement should assure the Judge a large attentive and representative audience. It has been many years since he addressed an audience of his home people on the question of politics and there will doubtless be a large turnout. Judge Murray has abundance of facts and figures to present and will speak to the point.

Reveries gathered from different sections of the county within the last ten days go to show that the tobacco crop will be much lighter than common. The tolling farmers seem to have fallen out with the production of the weed in this county, and is turning his attention to things that promise better returns for the labor invested. The tobacco market seems to have reached the bottom on prices everywhere on account of an over production.

On next Legislature will be called upon to make an appropriation sufficient to exhibit Kentucky's products at the World's Fair in 1893. The Fair is a great way off, it is true, but it is suggested that to get the people interested in the matter cannot begin too soon. Our State's Fair that will in every way be credible. This will require the expenditure of a considerable sum of money, and the people should be early aroused to the importance of it.

During Decoration Day exercises at Whitesville, Davies county, a number of Grand Army men were attacked by a gang of rascals. They dragged the speaker from the stand, tore up the floral emblems and dispersed the assembly. The veterans went to Whitesville where they were again attacked by the rascals, who seriously cut two men, Earl Taylor, leader of the rascals, and John Smith. Dave Smith was stabbed in the abdomen.

This Democratic party in this county needs thorough organization. It needs the counsel of her leading men upon the manner of conducting the present campaign. A conference on June 10th, at Court day touching on the work to be done from now until August would be eminently proper. A few good Democrats in some of the districts are reported as favoring the Alliance movement, and have declared their intention to support that candidate. These have undoubtedly been misinformed and misled into taking such a step. What they have to do is to show the error of their way and bring back into the fold.

The poem on our first page is published by request of Mrs. J. W. Steel, of this city. Mrs. Steel is an old time Quaker, and the new fashioned way of a fiddle in the church is not in accord with her ideas of church music.

The sentiment in the poem expresses her ideas on this point. The fiddle has just been introduced into her church as well as the Methodist church, and she thinks it is "just awful."

A lively little fight occurred at the depot Sunday night on the arrival of the West bound passenger train, between Capt. Billy Ahl and Ben Lee Bates. Ben Lee had been paying too much attention to Capt. Ahl's daughter of late, and the Captain had given him fair warning to desist, and told the young man that if he ever caught him in her company again he would settle with him in a way that he would not forget it. The Captain's daughter had been down from town and was expected home that night, and Bates made it convenient to be there to meet her. The Captain was there also, and as the young lady stepped off the train Bates rushed up to her to escort her home, and just as he did so the Captain dealt him a stunning blow with his cane. Bates let his girl and at once turned his attention to the old man and for five minutes saw pretty a little tussle as they ever saw followed. In the scuffle Bates threw Ahl to the platform and was in the act of jerking out his knife when the latter intervened and pulled him off. Bates got decidedly the best of the fight and walked off with his girl. He was before Mayor Pierce Monday. Bates was fined $5, and costs, and Ahl $1, and the costs.

DON'T WANT YOUR MONEY

Unless we give you a full dollar's worth of the best clothing on earth for every dollar you leave with us. That is our way of doing business. We sell only strictly honest and reliable clothing of our own manufacture, and herewith we invite all to an inspection of our large and magnificent display of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, made in the city by strictly Louisville mechanics. We sell this clothing under a guarantee, and promise further to sell it cheaper than you would be required to "give up" for Eastern-made stuff at other houses.

PATESVILLE.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH CIRCLES.

Just four weeks ago our village was shaken from center to circumference by one of the grandest weddings that has ever taken place in this part of our State. But on last Tuesday, May 2nd, another of equal importance took place.

The contracting parties this time were P. M. Ripton, Gen. agent of the National Library Association of Chicago, and Miss Tena Jarboe; the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. George Jarboe, of our town. It was attended by a large number of citizens of Patesville and vicinity, besides several from outside, among whom were Misses Annie and Nellie Clark, the accomplished daughters of Mr. Jas. Clark, near Louisville, and Mr. Charles Marlow, formerly of Patesville. Rev. W. H. Bruner of the Baptist church was the officiating clergyman, and Rev. W. A. Black, the popular young M. E. clergyman, of Fordsville, and Miss Letitia Pyrmire, of Patesville, were the attendants.

The ceremony was said at about 3 p. m. and was witnessed by an immense crowd considering the inclement weather, rain having fallen at intervals during the day. After the ceremony refreshments were served, and a good number of the guests repaired to their homes; while a few remained until Wednesday morning and had a very pleasant time continuing their social call 'till almost 11 o'clock p. m., which seemed to come entirely to early in the night.

On Wednesday morning the party left for Hawesville, where they arrived about 11:30, and after spending a few minutes in town the bride and groom left for Owensboro, where they expect to remain some time. Everybody seemed to be very sorry to see the honored couple leave Patesville, but Patesville's loss will be Owensboro's gain.

May their lives be long and prosperous. The presents were numerous and costly.

LONG BRANCH.

W. C. McGehee was in the city last week.

Mr. J. H. Sullivan was down from the city Sunday.

W. M. Ditto and family were in the city last week.

W. E. Chambers and family spent Sunday at Hardinburg.

J. K. Ditto and daughter, Miss Poggie, took the show.

Master Eddie Chambers returned from school at Hardinburg Monday.

Mrs. A. Ditto Jr. and children, and Miss Inez Dooley took the show.

Several of the children attended children's day at the Methodist church Sunday.

Miss Rosie Hall returned to Pleasant Grove Saturday, after several weeks stay in this place.

J. S. Moreman was at this place one day last week. I expect Joe would like to call again on the same business.

Dr. John Hamlin was over at Long Branch Monday looking around to see how much better his neighbor's crops were than his own.

A Large Asphalt Mine Opened up Near Garfield.

One of the largest asphalt mines in the country was opened up near Garfield, this county, on the Mingo Condon farm last week. Major Morris of Louisville has charge of the work and is now running about seventy-five hands. Mr. Morris and other parties took a lease on a lot of land in that section a year ago with the view of opening an asphalt bed, but nothing has been done until last week when a big force of men were put to work, and now we learn they have about four thousand tons ready for shipment. That amount has already been contracted for to go on the streets. The mines are about two miles from the Hardinburg branch railroad. Mr. Burd has the contract for filling the asphalt and will put eight teams to work at once.
